

Prestbury Remembers
1916

The Somme 1916

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=vaE6SH-_snE

gettyimages

104511750

The Somme 1916

'Jack'
JAMES

Cyril
DE LA BERE

Robert POCKETT

Denis
DISTON

The First Tank Battle

Arthur McCulloch
INGLIS

C5 Crème de Menthe

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=b-9n3GUwIDo>

The “Creme de Menthe” passes.

458833218

Arthur McCulloch INGLIS

Arthur was born in Inverness and educated at Cheltenham College.

Arthur was the first man in history to lead tanks into battle.

"Creme de Menthe is walking down the High Street of Flers with the British Army cheering behind."

Walter 'Luke' LANDALE

Luke grew up at the Hayes in Prestbury. He joined the Royal Navy at 16 and quickly progressed through the ranks to Lieutenant by age 27.

HMS E-18

One of “Churchill’s secret submarines”
sent to the Baltics to disrupt German shipments of iron ore

She disappeared off the coast of Reval,
Estonia and went down, with all hands.

The fate of E18 remained a mystery for over 93 years, until the wreck was found by a Swedish survey team in 2009.

HMS E18

HMS E18 Discovered; Churchills Lost Sub Found

X: No data
Y: No data

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=IF8QcB_u6m0

0:22 / 2:23

Arthur Grace LOUIS

Ernest Jonah PASS

